

Clay Lowder, Physician & Author

Winners Travel: How to Win at the Game of Life!

Clay began by reading the first two lines of his book, Winners Travel.

A few years ago, Clay's dream house burned down in 10 minutes and that memory has really stuck with him since... He asked, "In 10 minutes, what would you grab from your house?" It really makes you appreciate the small things in life.

Fortunately, he re-built his dream house and thanks Stansberry Research for his financial success.

Life is short and you have one chance on this Earth to win at the game of life. He recommends reading Rich Dad Poor Dad.

Here are Clay's top five tips to win at life:

1. Write your eulogy – "You become what you think about."
 - a. Write down the one thing you would want someone to say at your funeral
2. Write down the top six things you need to do the next day, the night before
3. Surround yourself with your top five people
4. Grow your wealth
5. Give till it hurts
 - a. Find someone that needs help and give it to them

Traveling soothes your mind and expands your soul. Give the gift of traveling.